Quarterly Considerations

Q1 2022

1. Capital market volatility increased notably in the quarter and asset class returns were almost uniformly negative as the Russia/Ukraine conflict, the Fed’s rate hike campaign, elevated inflation and rising interest rates weighed on investor sentiment.
2. The crisis in Ukraine may temporarily impede global economic growth and exacerbate existing inflationary forces, but we think the probability of avoiding recession is greater than the probability of entering one during the remainder of the year.
3. Absent recession, equity markets have historically proven resilient when confronted by the Fed raising interest rates. However, the current level of inflation could prove to be particularly challenging for the Fed this time around.

Equity & Fixed Income Quarterly Returns

Both equity and bond markets declined during the quarter, a rare event that has occurred only 16 times since 1976.

The U.S. Yield Curve Flattens

The U.S. yield curve flattened during the quarter as the spread between the 2-year Treasury and 10-year Treasury narrowed to 4 bps, the lowest since 2019. Historically, markets have proved to be resilient following an inversion of the 2-10 spread.

Slower But Still Positive Economic Growth Estimated for 2022

The conflict in Ukraine pushed expectations for global economic growth lower. A strong U.S. consumer and pent-up demand provides support domestically, while Europe will likely feel the impact more than other regions.

U.S. Breakeven Inflation Levels

Inflation in the U.S. remains elevated. However, there is a large gap between near-term and long-term inflation expectations, with inflation expected to moderate longer-term.

U.S. Labor Market – Number of Unemployed per Job Opening

The U.S. labor market remains tight as the number of job seekers per job opening has fallen to less than 1, which may further support wage growth.

Leading Economic Indicators

Leading economic indicators fell from peak levels but remain in positive territory supporting a positive outlook for economic growth in the near term.

Russia's Top 10 Exports

Russia's exports are primarily commodity focused. As a result, the sanctions on Russia have been a main driver of higher prices in the commodities market.

Asset Class Returns

Source: Morningstar Direct. As of March 31, 2022. *Hedge fund returns as of February 28, 2022.

Fixed Income (1Q)

- U.S. bonds posted the third worst quarter since 1976 as interest rates spiked amid rising inflation and ahead of the Federal Reserve's first interest rate increase since 2018.
- Despite a flattening yield curve, long duration assets suffered the most in the rising interest rate environment.
- In addition to rising yields around the world, a strengthening U.S. dollar was a headwind for non-U.S. debt.

Equity (1Q)

- Equity markets succumbed to investor uncertainty driven by a multitude of factors this quarter such as the conflict in Eastern Europe, high inflation, and tightening central bank policy.
- U.S. large cap equities fared best, led by value stocks. Growth stocks lagged value across market caps for the quarter as higher P/E companies underperformed.
- Abroad, developed markets edged out emerging markets as EM equities were driven lower by the conflict in Ukraine and weakness in China, Taiwan and South Korea.

Real Assets / Alternatives (1Q)

- + Commodity markets were one of the few areas that generated positive results. Strong performance was driven by soaring energy and metals prices as the conflict in Ukraine added to the supply/demand imbalance.
- Equity REITs were not immune to the volatility in the market and rising interest rates put additional pressure on the sector.
- + Hedge funds generally outpaced both the broad equity and fixed income markets despite negative absolute returns..

U.S. Treasury Yield Curve

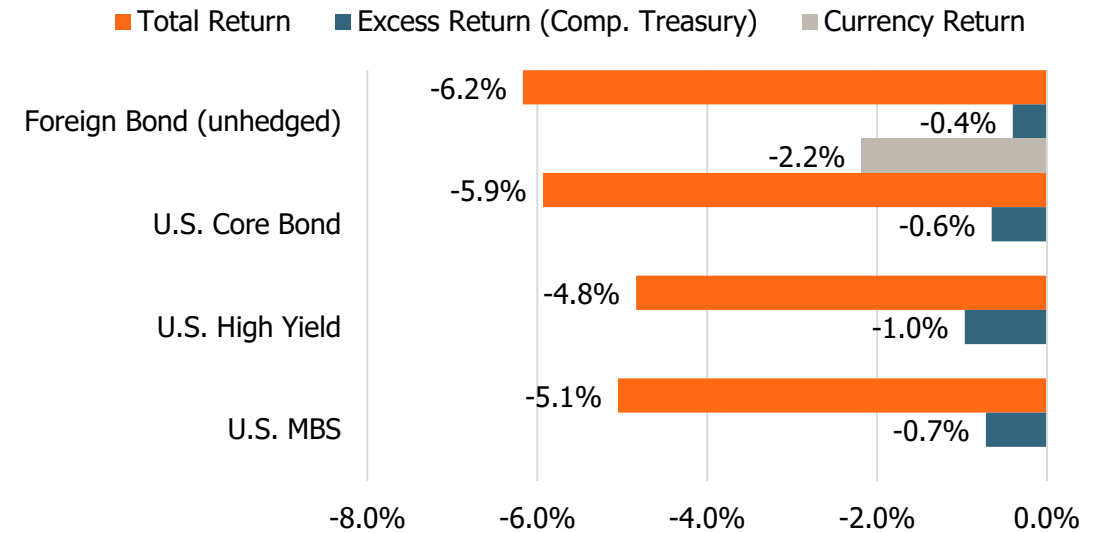

The U.S. yield curve flattened and the 2-10 spread narrowed to its lowest level since 2019, as the Federal Reserve raised its target rate by 25 basis points. The 10-year ended the quarter 80 basis points higher.

Source: FactSet. As of March 31, 2022.

Index Performance Attribution (1Q 2022)

Non-government sectors generally underperformed Treasuries during the quarter, as spreads widened in the risk-off environment. A strengthening U.S. dollar further weighed on non-U.S. bond returns.

Source: FactSet. As of March 31, 2022.

Credit Market Spreads – Trailing 5 Years

Corporate credit was not immune to the risk off mentality in the markets during the quarter. Both investment grade and high yield corporate bond spreads moved higher in the first half of the quarter before settling back in March. Heavy new issuance was met with strong demand as higher yields attracted both domestic and foreign buyers.

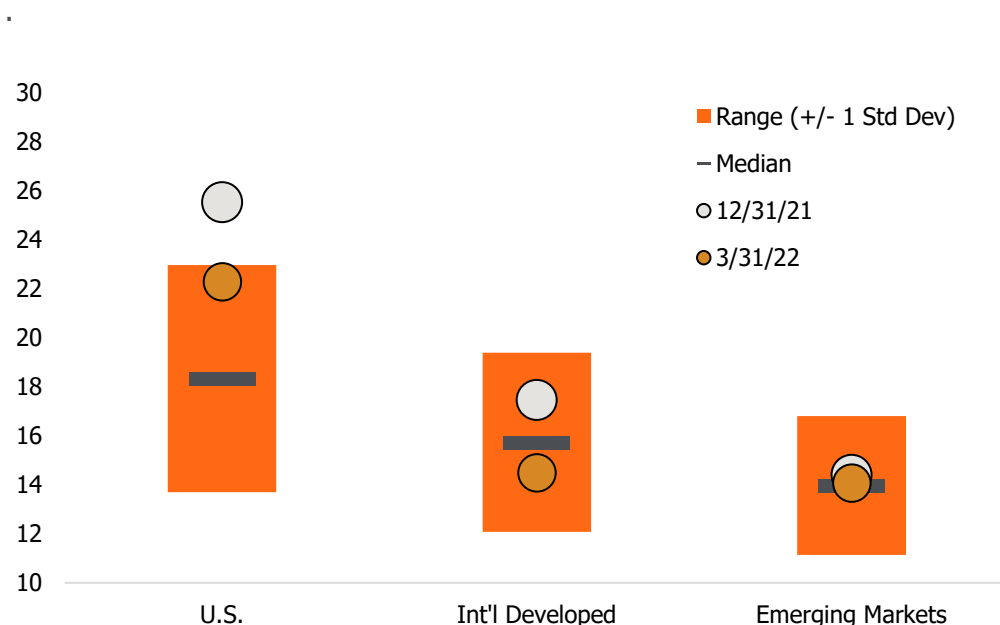

Source: FactSet. As of March 31, 2022.

Past performance does not indicate future performance and there is a possibility of a loss.

Equity Valuations (Trailing 15 Years)

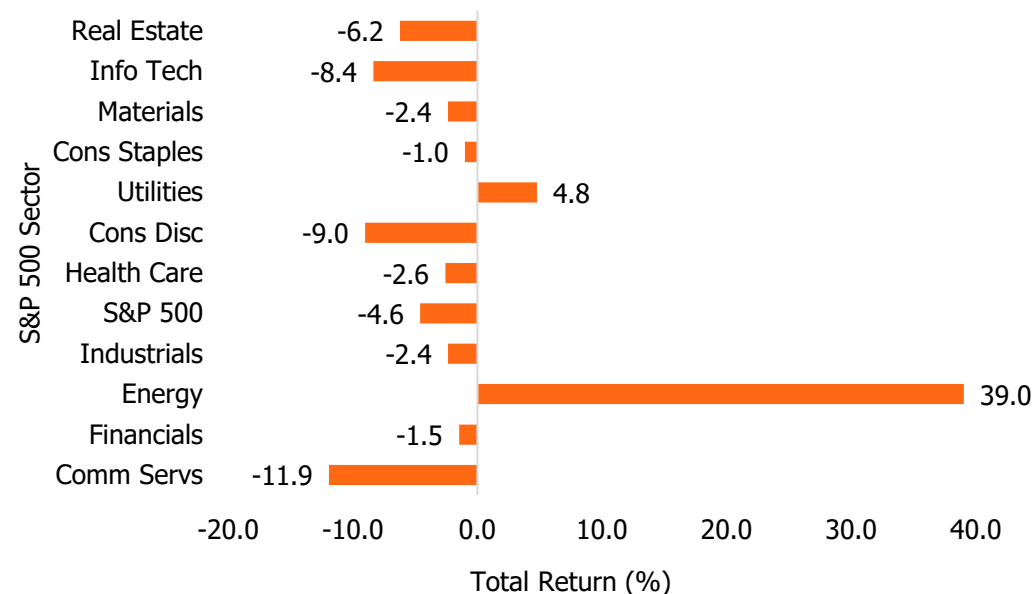

Equity multiples compressed in the quarter as prices moved lower. Valuations in the U.S. remain elevated while non-U.S. regions are at or below their 15-year median level.

Source: FactSet. As of March 31, 2022.

U.S. Equities - Return by Sector (1Q 2022)

The Energy sector was the clear standout for the quarter, driven by a rally in commodity prices stemming from the conflict in Ukraine. Growth segments of the market such as information technology and consumer discretionary lagged.

Source: Morningstar Direct. As of March 31, 2022.

Country Total Returns (%) – Top 10 Largest Economies

Equities around the world were broadly negative, with select regions generating positive returns. Canada benefited from rising commodity prices. The conflict between Ukraine and Russia tugged at investor optimism. Mainland Europe will likely feel the largest impact from the conflict which pushed countries such as Germany, France and Italy lower. Chinese equities continued to struggle as COVID-19 lockdowns fueled the negative return.

Source: Morningstar Direct. As of March 31, 2022.

Past performance does not indicate future performance and there is a possibility of a loss.

Commodity Performance

Commodities surged in the first three months of the year. The conflict between Ukraine and Russia and the continued global supply shortages pushed prices higher. Oil prices broke through the $120/barrel mark in March before settling in just above $100/barrel.

Source: Morningstar Direct. As of March 31, 2022.
Past performance does not indicate future performance and there is a possibility of a loss.

REIT Sector Performance

Higher valuation areas of the market, such as Data Centers, suffered the most as interest rates rose in the period. Easing of covid restrictions and an uptick in consumer travel benefitted Lodging/Resorts.
